

C4-Con 2023

Cosplay Guidelines

- Costumes must be family-friendly. No costumes that are overly revealing, gory, or deemed inappropriate or offensive by staff.
- For safety, footwear must be worn at all times even if a character is typically barefoot. Socks alone are not proper footwear.
- Anything with wheels, except for wheelchairs, are not allowed inside the building. This includes skateboards, scooters, bicycles, etc.
- Do not wear any uniforms that may be too realistic. You should not be confused with official law enforcement, military personnel, or security staff.
- No prop weapons of any kind.
- Any make-up must be properly sealed so that it does not rub off with casual contact or make a mess.
- Masks are allowed but must be removable at the staff's request.
- For safety, no oversized costumes greater than two feet from any side are allowed indoors.
- If you want someone's photo, be polite and ask first. Photos should not be taken in high traffic areas and no money may be exchanged in return for pictures
- The Citrus County Library System reserves the right to refuse entry or ask any person to change or leave at any time due to an inappropriate costume.
- Remember: Cosplay is not consent; please treat others with respect. Anyone caught harassing others will be asked to leave immediately. Harassment includes but is not limited to:
 - ◇ Stalking
 - ◇ Intimidation
 - ◇ Offensive verbal comments
 - ◇ Physical assault and/or battery
 - ◇ Bathroom policing
 - ◇ Inappropriate physical contact
 - ◇ Unwelcome physical attention
- If someone's behavior makes you uncomfortable, please inform a library staff member or security immediately.
